

ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC PRIMARY SCHOOL POSITIVE BEHAVIOUR REWARDS JANUARY 2015

At St. Mary's we believe in celebrating the excellent behaviour of our pupils using positive reinforcement and the following rewards system.

Outstanding achievement	Significant improvement in work and/or behaviour		Green Expected behaviour overall	Silver Sustained excellent, role model behaviour	Gold Consistent outstanding behaviour
Significant academic achievement Sporting achievement Contribution to the school Contribution to a charity Contribution to the parish	Improvement in work and/or behaviour Improved attitude to work		Children who work well, are helpful, polite and kind	Children who demonstrate excellent behaviour (not just a one off good week) Children who are consistently polite, considerate and conscientious	Children who always demonstrate exceptional behaviour in and out of class
Rewards	Rewards		Rewards - weekly	Rewards - half termly	Rewards - half termly
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Special award • Recognition from senior staff • Names on weekly newsletter and website 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Special/subject award • Recognition from senior staff • Small reward to be agreed between teacher and child ie 5 mins extra play, 5 mins on an ipad etc 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Head teacher award - each week the children who receive the HT award will be invited to the Hot Chocolate Treat (the following week - time tbc each week depending on diary) • Values award • Special star awards • Roles of responsibility • Golden time • End of term treat • Recognition from senior staff • Praise • Stickers • Names on weekly newsletter and website 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Platinum award • Platinum prize • Recognition from senior staff • Letter to parents • Names on weekly newsletter and website 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Diamond award • Diamond prize • Letter to parents • Names on weekly newsletter and website

All children who consistently demonstrate expected levels of behaviour will be invited to the end of term treat.